

UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE--DEC. 30, 1859.

Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 30, 1859.

ADVERTISERS--Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and others who wish to have their names and articles published in our columns, will do so at a moderate charge. We also publish the names of persons and increasing circulation in our community containing a large proportion of active, sincere producers, consumers and traders, as are in the state.

The Town Properties, at Private and Public Sale, are advertised in our columns to-day.

To-day is appointed for several Land Sales, Court House, &c., in New Berlin.

The author of Poetry received by us, must let us have the real name--E. H. Warren, School Reports, next week.

Another year of our paper is ended.
We honestly think it has been worth more than its cost, and ask you, reader, to give us your hand for another year... But should any of our friends part company with us here, we cordially wish them well, and shall be happy to renew our intercourse at any time.

Hoosier 1860?--Some of our workmen are taking time by the forelock, and propose contracts for the Building Campaign of 1860. (See Advertisements)

Any one wishing to CASH with the Six & Centuries, the Atlantic Monthly or the Latitude's Book, for $2, will please send in THIS WEEK, that we may send a draft for all at once.

As we make no charge for delivery in the Borough, 200 copies by our Comptroller we trust no one will forget to give him some token of kindness (not to say pasture) when he presents them with his annual roundelay, next Monday. Fifty-two visits per year, are worth something.

When it is remembered that we have Governor, Congressmen, President, and Vice President, to every man, it will be necessary to add to get papers of the true stamp into every household. Now in the Winter, when people have time to read, is the most favorable moment to begin. Will you and your friends look about to-day, and do something for those giving our number two pamphlet of (you say) useful journal a wider chance to gain it? Give us a New Year's list!

Some people say they want our paper but don't know how to get it. You have only to enclose the money of stamps in a sealed letter, or send by some neighbor, and you can have it. We take postage of several kinds at cash prices. What are more reasonable weeks to begin? You had better pay 20 cents or a dollar per week, and let your children grow up with the advantages which your neighbor's children have, and which are essential to their fair standing in this moving, improving world.

On TUESDAY next, Jan. 31, 1859, the Lewisburg Academy, and the different Departments of the University at Lewisburg will resume their sessions. The Peoples have had a very long week's playfull, and should re-commence their studies with increased alacrity and vigor.

The Christian Church in our Borough have just closed a series of meetings, resulting in 10 additions to their number.
Eld. McDaniel baptized eleven persons in the Susquehanna on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Fink, of the Lewisburg Lutheran church, has closed an interesting meeting with his Center charge, and is now holding evening meetings in this place.

About 35 persons connected themselves with the Methodist church, Lewisburg, during the recent protracted meeting.

Mr. Killinger sends us the timely, scathing speech of Mr. HICKMAN in reply to the attack upon him by the Buchanan organ... We copy the calm, conclusive remarks of Mr. MORRIS of Philadelphia, showing upon whom the blame of not organizing rebels. Mr. Morris is not a republican, but he is an honest and sensible opponent of Secession.... Mr. GROW of this State, FARNWORTH of Ill. (Republicans), Elliott of Tenn., Anderson of Ky., and Hill of Ga. (Americans) have made able Speeches charging home upon the Administration their Disunion sentiments, or defending the Opposition from the responsibility of sectional agitation and the suspension of the wheels of Legislation.

COURT WEEK--Continued.

The case stated of Billmeyer vs. Free-burger, resulted in a verdict for Deft.

GOMTH vs. George Gill, for larceny (while under the influence of liquor)--a county wherein not a Disunionist can be found! Had not the LeComptonites (who started it) better hold a meeting where the Disunionists are--say in Richmond or Charleston?

No answer to the Enigma in our last. We did not expect all the boys and girls would "stick," the second week.

Eldridge G. Page, author of the mock sermons of "Dow, Jr." last month committed suicide, in San Francisco, by taking arsenic. He was a native of Connecticut, a printer by trade, about 43 years of age, well educated, but lived and died in a miserable room.

The Postmaster General recently decided that when a husband had separated from wife, he has no right to receive letters addressed to her.

New Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers of Lewis, Hartley, and Har-dleton are requested to meet at the West St. in the borough of Hartleton on Saturday, Jan.
7, 1860, at 1 o'clock, P.M., for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' Institute. Directors, parents, and all others interested, are invited to attend. The object of the Institute is the mutual improvement of teachers, and a free interchange of thoughts relative to their vocation, thereby aiding them in a satisfactory discharge of the numerous, weighty duties devolving upon them.

By order of a preliminary meeting held at the new school-house in Lewis, Dec. 23, 1859.
